Principal Report

- Working hard on hitting goals individually with students
- Attendance task force is looking to help with low attendance, Westgate is one of the higher schools
- Starting BIST (behavioral intervention support team) Designed to help students make better choices, will be a big part of second semester and into next year.
- Assemblies, 8 Days of Fun for staff, rounding out the semester with lots of fun things happening for

Treasurer Report

- Step It Up hit our bank account ($9, 127!!)
- Budget is looking healthy, no significant changes outside from the Step It Up deposit

Old Business

- We are going to get $1,309 from the craft fair!! We will be storing their signs in the utility closet.

New Business

- We are getting Gator Pride painted on the gym wall. Johnny Graves said he will install it for free. We have a $1,500 donation to cover most of the $2,000 total. WCC will cover remaining cost (roughly $500)
- Gator Charms will be $5, WCC will make $1.50 from each sale.
  - *Patty will collect money for us.
  - *We are going to push it on Class Dojo first come, first serve. We have $50 available.
- We are meeting at 7 AM to set up for Teacher Winter Break Treat Day. Ken, Jessica, and Brent are baking cookies. Tim is picking up cookies from Hy-Vee. NO PEANUTS. Sinkerdoodles, Gluten Free Oreos (one package), sugar cookies, and gingerbread cookies from HyVee. One bag of ground coffee from Scooters. 3 dozen cookies each.
- Pre-Winter Break Pizza/Movie Day
  - *Capri Sun count- We have 110 right now, so we need 170ish to cover all students at Westgate
- Wildlife Encounters is good to go.

-Coming into January we need to be prepared to do a deep dive on corporate sponsorship for the carnival, Book Fair

-We need a plug for canvases for painting. Tim needs to talk to Mikal about Mangleson's and maybe Ashton might help us big time. Contact her and see if she wants to do it. Probably 200 canvases? March 10th.
