

I am kindness poem

By:Prophet

I am kindness.

I wonder when people will be kind.

I hear people being kind.

I see people sharing,caridaykng and showing kindness.

I want people to be kind.

I am kindness.

I feel kind.

I touch people being kind.

I worry if people are being mean.

I cry when I see people being mean.

I am kindness.

I understand when people are being mean.

I say just be kind.

I dream of being kind every day .

I try to get people to be kind.

I hope people will be kind.

I am kindness.
