Officer Reports

President – Alicia Battershell

- A. New meeting schedule--PRCC every other month, board monthly, committees as needed
- B. Sign Gypsies--yard sign at school before the first day. In the budget from last year.
- C. Thank you notes from some staff

Vice President--Rachel Mesenbrink

- Grant requests: Mr. Koch asked for ear buds ($80) for anyone who needs them. Approved; Mrs. Cordes asked for 2 new microwaves in staff room ($100). Mr. Becker said he would use operating budget money for that request instead of PRCC money.

Secretary--Kay Storck no report

Treasurer's Report, Eddie and Kara Morin

- A. 2020-21 budget, approved with some amendments.

Principal's Report

- A. Waiting to see what's next for school schedule (yellow to green status mid-September)
 - B. Thank you to families for patience and support at this time and kudos to teachers and students
 - C. No outside events at school until at least Sept. 30. He will keep communicating with PRCC.

Committee Reports

- Conferences dinners, class parties, etc. will look different. Be flexible and think outside the box for activities.
- TAGG (no more HyVee receipts)
- Read-a-thon--move to November; Take away the fundraiser portion and encourage reading
- Original Works--still hoping to make that happen
- Boosterthon--fun run in May

New Business

- Possible new committees--social media chair?, family engagement chair?
- Ideas to engage families--social media, polls, contests
- Alternatives to traditional fundraisers--outdoor pumpkin patch event in October, plant sale in the spring, Casey's rewards program

Old Business and Questions

- Gaga ball pit--rubber pavers or mulch? Money in budget for pavers, which may work better than mulch. Gaga ball will be available after Labor Day to individual classes initially. Metal instruction guide that screws onto the outside of pit.
- Community survey--Mr. Becker has the results from March and will send to Alicia
